

M'ADOO MAN SAYS PALMER FAVORING BOOZE INTERESTS

Tells The Senate Investigating Committee That Pennsylvania Saloons Running Wide Open.

Insists Palmer "Winking" At Violations of Prohibition Act

Violators Not molested By Department of Justice Agents Says Bonniwell.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 2.—Charges that the campaign for the nomination of Attorney General Palmer as democratic candidate for the presidency had been conducted in Pennsylvania with an open appeal to the distillery and brewery interests in the state were made today before the Senate investigating committee by Eugene O. Bonniwell, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Bonniwell, who distributed stickers during the primary campaign seeking the nomination of W. G. McAdoo, said that saloons and bonded warehouses in some parts of the state were now running "wide open" and that this was proceeding under the eyes of Department of Justice and prohibition enforcement officers appointed "with Mr. Palmer's advice."

The witness charged that the Palmer campaign in Pennsylvania had been a "ghastly and defacing degradation" of law. He added that the campaign he conducted for Mr. McAdoo had been entirely the work of himself and his colleagues and against the specific personal refusal of Mr. McAdoo to allow his name to be used.

"The doors of the bonded warehouses in Pennsylvania are standing wide open," Mr. Bonniwell said. "The breweries are running every day and the saloons are selling three percent beer."

Men concerned in the sale of liquor, he said, were leading the Palmer fight particularly in Scranton and Lackawanna counties.

"Saloons are running wide open in Philadelphia today," he declared.

"Are you saying that from the point of view of a man who believes in prohibition," Senator Reed inquired.

"No, I am opposed to the 18th amendment," he replied.

The most complete demonstration of the situation, he said, was that "whiskey that was selling at $16 a quart when the Palmer campaign opened, was selling freely when the campaign was at its height at $5 a quart throughout the anthracite territory."

WOMEN OF OHIO MAY CAST FIRST VOTE NEXT FALL

Columbus, O., June 2.—The U. S. supreme court decision, declaring invalid the referendum by which Ohio voters last fall disapproved legislative ratification of the federal prohibition amendment, in reality was a greater victory for the suffragists than for the drys.

It knocks out the proposed referendum on Ohio's ratification of the federal woman's suffrage amendment, which was to be next November.

If Delaware ratifies the federal suffrage amendment, Ohio women and those of other states will take part in the November presidential election probably also in primaries preceding.

In national ratification lies the only hope for Ohio suffragists this year. The Reynolds presidential suffrage bill of the last legislature—a state measure—is up for a referendum in November. Even if the measure is approved, it will not benefit women for this year's election.

If rejected, it will not keep women from voting if in the meantime another state ratifies the federal amendment.

GREGGIE SHUTS OUT ST. XAVIER COLLEGE

Howard Gregg, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gregg, who has been making a name for himself in baseball at Miami University, pitched his last game of the season in the Decoration Day clash with St. Xavier College of Cincinnati and won with a shutout, 6 to 0, allowing but two hits, striking out ten batters and not issuing a single pass to first.

Besides holding the St. Xavier slugs to two bingles, the former Washington High left hander grabbed off two hits driving in two runs and scoring one run himself.

While for some reason Gregg was allowed to pitch only three games this year he was Miami's winning hurler and won two of his three starts. The game lost was his second when his teammates threw victory into discord on errors. In three games pitched he allowed but nine hits and twirled two shutouts.

Gregg has another year on the diamond in college and even greater accomplishments are expected from his strong left arm if he is given the chance next season.

WEEVIL DAMAGES THE RED CLOVER

Recent investigation made in Western Ohio by T. H. Parks of the College of Agriculture show that red clover will again suffer serious insect damage due to the presence of the clover stem weevil. This insect is a small light-green worm which has hatched beneath the leaf stipules surrounding clover stems, and on May 20 was commencing to gnaw cavities into the green stems beneath these stipules. Many of the worms can be found by June 1 at the base of the developing heads which they blight and prevent from blooming properly. Other symptoms of their work are dead and blackened stems which did not develop heads.

No effective remedy is known except earlier cutting of the first crop of clover. This removes many of the worms before they mature. Sweet clover and alfalfa are not seriously injured by these insects.

In national ratification lies the only hope for Ohio suffragists this year. The Reynolds presidential suffrage bill of the last legislature—a state measure—is up for a referendum in November. Even if the measure is approved, it will not benefit women for this year's election.

If rejected, it will not keep women from voting if in the meantime another state ratifies the federal amendment.

FINE IS HUNG OVER CORN THIEF

Two hundred dollars and costs and three months in the workhouse is the penalty for stealing corn that was assessed against Tom Stewart of Eber, recently "caught with the goods" by a neighbor who had been missing a large amount of corn and suspected Stewart of being the thief.

Stewart was given until Saturday to make final adjustment of the fine, which is suspended until that time.

Because of Stewart's nocturnal habits the community about Eber is anxious to get rid of the man, and it is understood that he will arrange to move to healthier climes.

For the second time Roy Busick has faced Mayor V. J. Dahl on a charge of automobile stealing, but this time he was formally charged with the theft of the Ben Davis automobile, while the first time he was indicted for stealing the Chas. Allen machine.

Busick this week will face trial on the indictment charging him with the theft of the Allen car, and as he has steadfastly declined to admit his guilt the additional charge was placed against him.

Failing to convict him on either charge, the authorities here would turn the young man over to the Madison county authorities for burglarizing the store at Chenoweth Corners the same night the Allen automobile was stolen.

BIG COPPERHEAD IN HEN'S NEST

Berneta, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. McDowell, below Haynes, was sent Wednesday afternoon May 6, to gather the eggs. One of the nests was so located that the little girl had to stand tip-toe to get eggs and reaching into the nest her hand covered a huge snake. Needless to say the child withdrew her hand instantly, began to run and scream alarming her parents, while the snake becoming angered, hissed and bluffed after the child. Fortunately the snake was not quite quick enough to strike or bite the little hand.

The father happened to be at home and with his wife, the two armed themselves with pitchforks and although the snake had made an effort to leave the nest, they succeeded in dispatching it. The snake was a large one of the copperhead variety and had succeeded in swallowing two hen eggs before being disturbed.

Probably this is the cause of the child's escape, the snake no doubt being in the act of swallowing an egg when disturbed by the child.—Circleville Union Herald.

News of Appointment of Former Assistant Comes As A Surprise.

CIVIL SERVICE RULES CONTROL APPOINTMENT

Acting Postmaster Ireland And Associates Were Not Surprised at News From Washington.

(By Associated Press)

Washington, June 2.—Glenn B. Rodgers, republican, today was nominated by President Wilson to be postmaster at Washington C. H., Ohio.

SURPRISE GENERAL

The above announcement, reaching The Herald about 12:30 Wednesday afternoon, comes as a general surprise to local residents, it not being known that Mr. Rodgers was a candidate for the position which, since the resignation of S. A. Murry early in this year, has been filled by Acting Postmaster Horace C. Ireland, democrat.

Mr. Rodgers early Wednesday afternoon had not returned from Indianapolis, Indiana, and no statement from him was available.

Mr. Rodgers, since resigning as assistant postmaster, which position he had held for eleven years, has been at the head of the Fayette Credit Bu- reau and made excellent headway in reorganizing that business.

The exact date at which he will assume office is not yet announced.

The announcement of Mr. Rodgers' appointment, it seems, was not unexpected by Acting Postmaster H. C. Ireland, and others in the service, all of whom speak in praise of Mr. Rodgers' ability and record of service.

It seems that under the civil service

Hundreds of people from Fayette and Madison counties paid tribute to Alvin C. Duff in funeral services held at Jeffersonville in the M. P. Church Tuesday afternoon. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in Jeffersonville.

Mr. Duff passed away at his home in Yellow Springs Saturday morning at eight o'clock after a struggle for better health during the last two years.

Preceding the services at Jeffersonville short services were held at Yellow Springs, conducted by Rev. Simms.

Before taking up his residence with his family in Yellow Springs two years ago Mr. Duff was identified as one of the progressive business men of Fayette and Madison counties. For many years he owned stores in South Solon and at one time was associated with Mr. A. W. Duff in the hardware and farm implement business in Jeffersonville. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Masons at Jeffersonville.

Rev. Simms, assisted by Rev. McKinnon, conducted the services. Flowers were in profusion. Special designs were from fraternal orders and relatives.

Attended by a great concourse the body was laid to rest in Fairview cemetery.

Those who survive are the wife and five children, Mrs. Laurel C. Wilson, of near Urbana; Alvin, Jr., Marian, Max and Ruth. A mother, Mrs. Jane Duff, of Jeffersonville; two sisters, Mrs. Will Wood, of Cuyahoga Falls; and Mrs. Lynn Straley, of Jeffersonville. Mr. A. W. Duff, of this city is a cousin.

Among those who attended from a distance were: Mrs. Will Wood, of Cuyahoga Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Neville, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Carr, of South Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carr, of South Charleston; Mrs. Laurel Wilson, of Urbana; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Duff, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Duff, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hosier, this city.

ALL U. S. SHIPS WILL HAVE EARS AS WELL AS EYES

New York, June 1.—In olden times when Chinese ship-builders designed and constructed their lateen sailed craft for war or commercial purposes, prominent and oftentimes ferocious "eyes" were located on either side of the bow.

Today, modern America, now the leading nation in ship construction, is proposing to equip her merchant vessels with "ears" the location of which like the eyes on the Chinese ship are on the ship's bows, but under instead of over the water. While superstition induced the Chinaman to equip his ship so it could "see" its enemies and work its way into a safe port through shoal water, hidden rocks and through crowded waterways science has designed the "ears" for the same purpose.

With the destroyer Breckenridge equipped as a demonstrating ship, 40 or more representatives of leading shipbuilding lines have just had an opportunity to see and test the efficacy of the listening device. It is now a government controlled invention used on fighting ships. During the war as a protection against submarines and officially designated by the navy as "The M. V. type, Hydrophone." Its object is to disclose in surrounding waters the presence of other craft, to foretell the approach to shoal waters, apprise the navigator of the vicinity of light ships equipped with submarine bell signaling devices. It is expected also to disclose with a remarkable degree of accuracy, the depth of water wherein the ship so equipped is floating.

FORMER FAYETTE COUNTY CITIZEN IS LAID TO REST

Hundreds of people from Fayette and Madison counties paid tribute to Alvin C. Duff in funeral services held at Jeffersonville in the M. P. Church Tuesday afternoon. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in Jeffersonville.

Mr. Duff passed away at his home in Yellow Springs Saturday morning at eight o'clock after a struggle for better health during the last two years. Preceding the services at Jeffersonville short services were held at Yellow Springs, conducted by Rev. Simms.

Before taking up his residence with his family in Yellow Springs two years ago Mr. Duff was identified as one of the progressive business men of Fayette and Madison counties. For many years he owned stores in South Solon and at one time was associated with Mr. A. W. Duff in the hardware and farm implement business in Jeffersonville. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Masons at Jeffersonville.

Rev. Simms, assisted by Rev. McKinnon, conducted the services. Flowers were in profusion. Special designs were from fraternal orders and relatives.

Attended by a great concourse the body was laid to rest in Fairview cemetery.

Those who survive are the wife and five children, Mrs. Laurel C. Wilson, of near Urbana; Alvin, Jr., Marian, Max and Ruth. A mother, Mrs. Jane Duff, of Jeffersonville; two sisters, Mrs. Will Wood, of Cuyahoga Falls; and Mrs. Lynn Straley, of Jeffersonville. Mr. A. W. Duff, of this city is a cousin.

Among those who attended from a distance were: Mrs. Will Wood, of Cuyahoga Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Neville, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Carr, of South Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carr, of South Charleston; Mrs. Laurel Wilson, of Urbana; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Duff, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Duff, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hosier, this city.

Members of the Fayette County Farm Bureau and interested farmers have been called to Memorial Hall at eleven o'clock Saturday morning when the townships representatives of the Bureau will hold a conference to perfect plans and arrangements for the county membership enrollment campaign.

Full particulars for the opening of the campaign and the manner in which it is to be carried on in order to secure a one hundred percent membership in Fayette county are to be discussed and the meeting will be of interest to every farmer. State speakers will probably be on hand to size up the situation and local Bureau heads will take part.

After an hour of conference a noon day lunch will be served and it is requested that all who expect to attend notify President of the Farm Bureau J. M. Willis. This will also be necessary in order to determine the number of seats to accommodate the large attendance which will be present. Charles Allen is in charge of the luncheon.

The Young Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet Thursday at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. John Dial on Paint street (between Fayette and North). Assisting Mrs. Orme Brown, Mrs. Harry Flee, Mrs. Frank Perrill, Mrs. C. K. Leggett.

The Political Conventions

This year is certain to mark an epoch in the history of the nation. Party lines are to be reformed, party leadership established at both Chicago and San Francisco, to meet the changed conditions and to deal with the vital problems of the time.

Old political leaders are to battle with younger giants just entering the arena of American politics. The new and younger men representing the new demands will enter the struggle, confident of success. The older and more experienced politicians will struggle to maintain party power. New leaders will arise, old leaders will be retired.

History is in the making and all turn with hope and confidence to the great gatherings—one by the shores of Lake Michigan and the other by the Golden Gate.

The Washington Herald

Bank Letter Encouraging

The weekly letter of the Federal Reserve Bank while, in a measure, warning against expecting precipitate drops in market prices is nevertheless one of great encouragement to the people who are hoping for a return of less feverish industrial and commercial conditions.

The letter clearly indicates the prevalence of a determination on the part of an ever increasing proportion of the people to put a stop to useless and extravagant expenditures which, after all is said and done, is the only practical method, to bring about lower prices.

There is every assurance to be found, in the Reserve Bank's letter, that the nation is not to undergo any panic and that the processes of readjustment are to be gradual and certain. It seems clear that, while money is going to be withdrawn from channels of speculation, every provision will be made for proper financing of essential activities, both agricultural and industrial.

Not even in time of war when enormous expansion of the currency, exceeding any demand for expansion in the history of the world was necessary and brought about, has the wonderful adaptability of the reserve banking system to meet the needs of the time been more apparent.

There is every reason to look forward, as the readjustment work proceeds, with every confidence that normal levels will be attained in proper time without serious disturbances of business. The weekly bank letter strengthens the confidence of all in the success of the processes now under way.

Buckeye Ball Clubs

As the summer sun begins to make its rays felt, the veterans among the base ball players are rounding into physical trim and the old timers are showing their superiority over the new comers. The "morning glories" among the players and the clubs are beginning to fade away.

Most notable perhaps among the come-backs are the Cincinnati Reds, world champions of last season. Thus far the work of the champions has been a little disappointing to their admirers among the fans. The comparative poor work of the champions has been excused by their followers, because of cold weather. Now with the hot weather here better work is expected and better work is being done too.

The champions are now near the top and going strong and with the Cleveland American League team leading all rivals in the junior base ball organization this good old Buckeye State has reason to feel proud of its representative base ball teams.

Must Be Reckoned With

Penrose is recognized as certain to be a powerful factor in the Chicago convention. He is an old line politician, one of the most successful of all the old timers. He has, by virtue of the tremendous and always dependable republican majority in the Keystone State, been able to hold his leadership in party councils secure from all attack, even weathering the storm of the Roosevelt campaigns of 1912, and emerging as the real power in Pennsylvania politics and an important unit in national councils of his party.

The unusual strength of Penrose's position at this time is because, with the large Pennsylvania delegation "in his pocket" and with that delegation really unpledged he is looked to by the great uninstructed majority of the delegates as the real leader. He controls the largest free unit among the delegations.

Senator Penrose is recognized as a powerful factor than he was in 1912. He is a firm believer in organization politics and will be guided, in his consideration of the claims of the several applicants for the nomination at Chicago, first by what the candidates can and will deliver to the politicians in the way of patronage and power.

Real changes in political methods and in the personnel of candidates to meet changed conditions and vital economic and industrial demands do not appeal to Penrose.

His purpose is to strengthen the hold of the politicians—other considerations are secondary. Whatever his purposes Penrose must be reckoned with at Chicago.

POETRY FOR TODAY

PREFERENCE

You may pan for gold in the river's ditches,
And dive for pearls in the Indian Sea;
You may rob the earth of its fabled riches,
But leave the wealth of a book to me.

You may sweep the corn from the sloping highlands,
And pull the flax with your hands of greed;
You may ship the cane from the sunny islands,
But spare a pouch of the soothing weed.

You may gaff the salmon and shoot the plover;
You may stalk the deer in the valley's fog
And follow hounds to the fox's cover,
But leave my book and my pipe and dog.

How Fast We Die

Race of People Who Fight the Hand of Time.

The population of the world is about 1,660,300,000.

The average age of death is about 32 years.

About 57,874,753 die annually.

Nearly 908,520 die weekly.

About 5,310 die hourly.

Almost 90 die every minute.

About three die every second.

Sixty persons have died while you have been reading the above.

Death at 33 (before our prime) seems very short. From 20 to 35 is regarded as the sweet summer of life. Adventures, loves and romances are usually linked with those years, after which comes the problem of how to fight off early old age, premature senility and the distressing, despondent ills that usually come to us in the winter of our lives. In the famous Balkans, or that part of Europe known as the Near Orient, live a hardy, rugged people. Though brave and fearless, they are a pastoral people. Their fellowship with nature has given them priceless secrets in botany, plant life and agriculture. Two-thirds of the rarest and most precious perfumes (attar of roses) comes from Bulgaria. The Bulgarians gave the idea of fermented milk to the world, and it is generally known that in Bulgaria, in a population of 1,000,000 people, 1,600 live to be 100 years or over, while here in the United States it is regarded as a rare news item when any one reaches the century mark. Their one great family remedy upon which they rely and for centuries has been handed down from one generation to another is the famous preparation called Bulgarian Blood Tea, composed of roots, barks, leaves, seeds, berries, herbs and flowers. A teaspoonful of these herbs brewed in a cupful of hot water and taken at bedtime eliminates the fatal toxic poisons which are responsible for early old age and most of the ills we suffer. Bulgarian Blood Tea is today used the world over and praised by millions of suffers fighting disease and warding off old age weaknesses. They include herbs and buds budding into womanhood or manhood crossing precarious thresholds of life. All praise and recommend it when recover their health and when the blood becomes rich and full of life and sparkle of good. In this connection those who were in despair when you drugged today for aches and pains of Bulgarian Blood Tea and will never regret the time you spent in reading this item.

Why a Majority of the Smaller Cars Come on Goodyear Tires

Last year more cars using 30x3-, 30x3½, or 31x4-inch tires were factory-equipped with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

This is plainly a result of the high relative value produced in these tires for the smaller cars by Goodyear's enormous resources and scrupulous care.

They represent the same intense endeavor to supply utmost satisfaction in tires that has laid the basis for the marked preference which exists everywhere for Goodyear Tires in the larger sizes.

This real Goodyear value in tires is available for your Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell, or other car using one of these sizes, at our nearest Service Station. Go there for these tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in water-proof bag $4.50

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Socially the most important nuptial event of the season, regardless of its being a quiet home affair, with simplicity its keynote, was the marriage of Miss Fanny Vilas Dahl, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison B. Dahl, and Mr. Webster A. Mathews, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Mathews, of Columbus, solemnized at the home of the bride at half past nine o'clock Wednesday morning. The local interest of the marriage is shared by a wide outside acquaintance, and especially in the bridegroom's home, Columbus, where his father is associated with the Standard Oil Company and Mr. Dahl is well known as vice president of the Midland Grocery Company of that city.

The bride is one of the loveliest of girls, her sweetness and charm of personality as much a natural endowment as her beauty.

A graduate of Mrs. Fernley's School in Burlington, N. J., and of National Park Seminary, Forest Glenn, Md., she has had every advantage of education and travel, and an unusual amount of admiration in whatever circles she has moved.

The bridegroom is successfully established as one of the prominent young business men of Columbus, being secretary and treasurer of the Mathews Lumber Company. Early in the war he enlisted for aviation service and was in France for some time as instructor in aviation. Both in his college days at Ohio State University and in later years he has enjoyed unusual personal popularity and has already made for himself many friends in the bride's home town and is sharing in the felicitations being showered upon her.

The ring ceremony, impressively performed by Rev. Karl B. Alexander, of Grace M. E. Church, was witnessed only by the parents of the bride and bridegroom and the bride's sisters and grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Dahl.

As the troth was plighted bright sunshine flooded the stately rooms of the handsome home and there was a lovely touch of June in the profusion of flowers, most artistically arranged and filling the air with fragrance. The decorations included a tall standard holding pink gladioli and baskets of sweet peas, besides a quantity of beautiful flowers sent by friends from their own gardens.

The bride was extremely pretty and chic in a tailored suit of midnight blue tricotine, with white lace blouse and French hat of tiny blue bells covered with dark blue maline.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr.

and Mrs. Mathews left for a ten days' lake trip and upon their return will go at once to their own home on Hamilton Avenue, Columbus, which is now in complete readiness for their occupancy.

On Tuesday evening at half past six o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Dahl entertained the wedding guests at an extremely beautiful pre-nuptial dinner, perfect in every appointment. The table, laid with twelve covers, had for its central adornment a wonderful mound of My Maryland roses and smilax, and was illuminated by green candles. The place cards were exquisitely hand painted brides and the menu a particularly elaborate one.

A much enjoyed feature in connection with the dinner was the reading by Mrs. Dahl of a letter written by her grandfather, one of the early New Englanders, upon the occasion of his daughter's marriage and giving to the man of her choice pertinent suggestions in rhyme. The letter had been sent from New York by a cousin, Mr. Charles Vilas, recently a guest at the Dahl home, and its humor and script was exceedingly quaint.

The dinner was a delightful prelude to the wedding.

The bride was wearing a stunning gown most becoming to her fair type, of black crepe georgette, built over taffeta, with spring flowers, embroidered in black jet and crystal beads, the girdle fastened with bouffants, the hem edged with taffeta ruffles.

Mrs. Dahl looked very handsome in a hand embroidered gown of white silk.

Saturday noon about sixty good friends and members of the Washington circuit came to the parsonage and surprised their pastor, Rev. Floyd E. Gale. They brought well baskets and a bounteous picnic dinner was enjoyed in the Willis' grove in Millwood, near the parsonage.

Among the number of delicious cakes taken from the hampers there was a fine birthday cake of pink and white, with twenty-eight candles.

Rev. Gale's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gale, and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krieger, of Zanesville, were present.

A number of nice presents were bestowed upon the pastor, and from the members of Mount Olive and White Oak Churches there was a handsome gift.

gave no hint to the fortunate young women receiving them of the very beautiful party which they were to enjoy at the home of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Hodson, nor of the interesting announcement awaiting them.

It was given by Mrs. Hodson to announce the engagement of Dr. Hodson's niece, Miss Mary Collins, and her marriage to Mr. Ralph L. McCoy, of Bluffton, Ind., in the near future, and the guests were the closest friends of the bride elect.

The affair had been planned with much ingenuity and was admirably carried out to complete success, both in its surprise features and in its delightful hospitality.

The handsome home beautifully enfeated with summer bloom, presented a gay scene, as the girls thronged around the pretty bride to be with warm good wishes.

The announcement was cleverly made—Each girl took from a basket a package, which when opened was found to contain tea towels ready for hemming and inside the towels were hearts, pierced with Cupid's dart, bearing the inscriptions, "The Buckeye State, Ohio University, Miss Mary Collins, Washington C. H.," and "The Hoosier State, Purdue University, Ralph L. McCoy, Bluffton, Ind."

After a merry afternoon hemming the towels and engaging in an approach heart contest, the hostess served an elaborate three course supper.

The long table was a picture, in which yellow and green were the prevailing colors in wonderfully effective decoration. Suspended overhead from the dining room chandelier were large hearts of smilax and upon the table mirror in the center rested an exquisite basket of yellow rose buds and snap dragons, the handle tied with tulip bow. Encircling the large basket were lovely little ones filled with yellow rose buds, and small tulip bows on the handles. Scattered over the table were the same fragrant roses and the place cards bore the same flower.

The color scheme and the heart idea were prettily introduced in the courses and the less, cakes and candies were all moulded into hearts.

The guests were enthusiastic in appreciation of Mrs. Hodson's charming hospitality and the beauty of the affair. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. G. W. Collins, mother of the bride, to be Mrs. Glenn H. Woodward, and her winsome little daughter, Roma Angeline, who was a special attraction all in herself.

Miss Collins, whose quick wit and responsiveness have won for her a distinctive place in her little coterie, was charming in a summery toilette of blue georgette blouse and white taffeta skirt.

Mrs. Hodson was wearing a hand-some gown of green taffeta and georgette.

The wedding takes place next Monday afternoon June the seventh.

Miss Collins has been in Wingate, Ind., as art instructor in the public schools, and since her graduation from the Ohio University has been here but little, except in the summer vacations.

Mr. McKay graduates from Purdue University in civil engineering this week and immediately after the wedding takes his bride to Forest City, Neb., where he has accepted a position with the Missouri Pacific railroad.

The guests at the announcement were: Misses Lorena Hanks and Nola Berlin, of Wilmington; Ruth Smith, Doris McCoy, Elizabeth Johnson, Jean Howat, Marie Nisley, Dorothy Fullerton, Mary Weaver, Pearl Minton, Mrs. W. P. Zimmerman, Mrs. G. H. Woodmansee.

Complimenting Miss Rose Richwine of Columbus and Miss Fern Van Kirk of Springfield, Miss Emma Smith gave an elaborate three course dinner, Sunday noon.

The throwing of the guests baby pictures upon a screen provoked much merriment and there were original guessing contests and dainty refreshments served.

Cavars were laid for nine including, with the hostess, and honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Blackmer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buchanan, Mr. Otto Anderson and Mr. H. C. Flea.

SENATE REFUSES MANDATE

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, June 1.—President Wilson's plea for an American mandate over Armenia was rejected in the Senate today by a vote of more than two to one.

Thirteen Democrats cast their votes with the united Republican membership on the final roll call, and the resolution, "respectfully declining" to grant congressional authority for the mandate, was adopted, 52 to 23, in the form drafted by the Republican leaders.

The resolution will be sent to the House tomorrow and the leaders there plan to adopt it without change on Thursday.

DATE FOR PICNIC IS NOT DECIDED

Fish and Game Association members did not decide upon a definite date for the annual picnic at their meeting in the Probate Judges office Tuesday evening. Action was taken to appoint committees and these will be announced later.

Details were taken up concerning the manner in which the big crowds are to be handled this season and the way in which the picnic is to be made the greatest of all held by the Association.

Very little out side sympathy is wasted on a widow and widower who marry.

CHIEF CULPRIT LIVES IN EASE IN SWITZERLAND

Genoa, Switzerland, (By Mail)—In one of the most luxurious hotels in Lausanne is now living the Turkish multi-millionaire named General Ahmed Djemal Pasha, former Turkish minister under the Young Turk regime at Constantinople and former commander of the fourth Turkish army in Syria.

He is the first upon the black list of the Arabian government for extradition and punishment being accused, says the Tribune De Geneve, of the deaths of 7,000 Arabian, Syrian and Armenian families whom he is alleged to have ordered to be massacred or deported into the desert where they died of hunger and thirst in the war. He has been sentenced to death after a hearing in Turkey.

Djemal Pasha who called himself the "Hero of Islam" admits, according to the newspaper, that he was "only directly responsible for about 200 deaths of heretics."

By tyranny, it is charged, he obtained his vast wealth in Turkish gold always refusing bank notes. Once a week his wife or one of the members of his family travelled to Constantinople from Djemal's headquarters in Syria under military escort with small boxes of gold which were forwarded subsequently to Switzerland and Holland.

It was Djemal and Djavid Pasha who were in Paris in July, 1914, and, foreseeing the war, bought the German warships Goeben and Breslau for their government by orders from Constantinople.

Djemal who has only temporary permission to sojourn in Switzerland was recently requested by the Swiss government to leave this country, but he managed to procure a medical certificate proving that traveling would be prejudicial to his health and remains at Lausanne.

The Tribune demands his expulsion from Switzerland with several of his satellites. Djemal, however, cannot return to Turkey, as the death sentence awaits him there.

This Djemal Pasha should not be mistaken for another Turkish leader of similar name and title who recently was appointed a minister of the new Turkish cabinet.

Very little out side sympathy is wasted on a widow and widower who marry.

G.O.P. CALLS ON STATES TO RATIFY

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, June 1.—On motion of T. Coleman Du Pont, of Delaware, the Republican National Committee today unanimously adopted a resolution calling on Republican states which have not done so to pass the woman suffrage constitutional amendment.

The committee also today refused to re-open its action of a year ago by which it seated Emile Kunz, of New Orleans, as national committeeman for Louisiana. The application of Frank C. Labit, of New Liberia, for rehearing, was denied.

WOMAN MURDERS MAN SHE LOVED AS HE LAY ABED

Young Married Man Shot As He Lay Asleep With Wife and Baby By Woman Who Then Kills Her Daughter and Herself.

(By Associated Press)

Philadelphia, June 1.—Madly in love with a married man, according to the police, Mrs. Mary Frances Dunlap, living on a farm near West Grove, Pennsylvania, shot and killed 1. Leroy Elchelberger, the object of her infatuation, as he lay asleep in bed with his wife and infant early to day.

She then drove to her own home and killed her 11-year-old daughter, Ruth and herself. Mrs. Dunlap was 36 years old and Elchelberger 30.

RATHER DARING IS THIS DANCE FROCK

Rather daring but striking is this debutante dance frock which was designed by Elizabeth Hines, the pretty little actress playing in "See Saw" this season. Whether it will be accepted by any other than professional women is doubtful. It is fashioned of cherry and silver striped brocade cut in one piece with draping to show the stripes in different directions. Tulle forms a yoke which takes the place of shoulder straps. It is flesh colored and quite startling in effect.

'WAS MISERABLE' SAYS CONTRACTOR

So Weak and Run Down He Was Ready To Give Up—Couldn't Turn Hand For Weeks.

Still another well known Cincinnati man relates his remarkable experience with Tanlac. Harry H. Loux, a contracting painter living at 124 East 13th street, declares that a few bottles of the medicine has put him in shape to where he has actually gained twenty-four pounds in weight. But let Mr. Loux tell his own story. Here is his statement:

"At the time I got Tanlac I was in such a bad fix that I was just about ready to give up. But while in the Drug Store one day looking for something else to try, I asked one of the clerks if this Tanlac was what it was cracked up to be' and he advised me to give it a trial, saying it was certainly wonderful. Well, I have found it just as he said for I finished my first bottle with a gain of seven pounds in weight. Since that time I have picked up seventeen pounds more, making a gain of twenty-four pounds, and am feeling as strong and well as I ever did in my life.

"Three years ago I began suffering from indigestion, disordered kidneys and rheumatism and had reached the point where I felt like I had rather not live at all than be in such misery. Sometimes the pains that shot through my back were so keen as to almost take my breath. I also had terrible rheumatic pains in my right leg and arm and often, for two weeks at a time, I couldn't move a brush or turn my hands to help my men with a job. I also had a nagging cough that worried me so I could never get a good night's sleep. I could not eat without it hurting me and dropped down in weight until my clothes were away too large for me. In this run-down condition I had an attack of the 'flu' followed by double pneumonia and no hope was held out for my recovery. On getting up I found my stomach in worse shape than ever and of all men it seems to me I was most miserable.

"But now I am feeling as fine as a man could wish. I have picked up so much in weight and I have had to have all the last clothes I bought let out and judging from the way I am gaining now I'll soon have to put myself in a new outfit. But I am not surprised at gaining so much weight for I have been eating like a wolf ever since I finished my first bottle of Tanlac. My kidneys are now in good shape—I have no more backache, rheumatic pains or stomach trouble and feel just like an entirely different man. Before taking Tanlac I did well to get to my work even on the cars, but now I enjoy walking and am saving enough money in car fares to pay for my Tanlac. My only regret is that I did not take Tanlac long before and I just wish I could tell everybody personally how it has helped me."

Tanlac is sold in Washington by C. S. Haver, in Lowell by Mason's Drug Store, in Jeffersonville by J. B. Davis, in Octa by I. W. Murphy and in Millidgeville, E. L. Ford Sons.—Advt.

ESCAPES JAIL AT WILMINGTON BY CLEVER RUSE

John Buchanan, formerly employed as a farm hand in eastern Fayette county, and for some weeks confined in the Clinton county jail as result of his holding up and robbing a butcher shop in Blancheser and being wounded by a meat clever hurled as he was leaving the place, made his escape from the jail at Wilmington, Monday night, by placing a dummy in bed and secreting himself behind the door so that when the sheriff stepped into the jail he slipped out behind him and got away.

Buchanan was a deserter from the army and was formerly indicted for robbery as result of his escapade and capture at Blancheser.

Every effort is being made to locate him but last reports indicated that he was not only still at large but probably would never be recaptured.

PIKE IS CLOSED NEAR MELVIN

Persons traveling over the new pike leading to Washington C. H. find it necessary to detour at Melvin, as some work is being finished on the road between Melvin and Reeserville. The fine crushed rock that is to surface the road, is being hauled from this city by the county trucks and dumped at intervals along the road.

Wilson & Co., which is finishing the work between Melvin and Reeserville, will probably complete the section of the pike east of Sabina, which was built by the Brewer Co.

Melvin is a very busy little place at the present time, as this is the center of the road activities. Stone is filled in the holes in the road, preparatory to the pouring of the tarmac, which is poured while it is boiling hot. After the tarmac is placed on the road then the fine screenings will be spread which will make the road as nice as any to be found in the State of Ohio.

The two sections of the pike leading into Sabina and going out of Sabina are being linked up by the Sabina Council, which has repaired the street connecting those links, thus making a stretch of almost perfect road from Wilmington to Washington C. H.—Wilmington News.

MORAN LOOKS OVER MAN KNOWN HERE

Local baseball fans will read with interest the following clipping from the Cincinnati Enquirer concerning Nelson Potts the brilliant young southpaw who was defeated by the Washington Athletics, 1 to 0 in a tenn ining battle with the Potters Tramps two weeks ago.

"Nelson Potts, a local amateur of considerable repute, practiced with the Reds before the game. He is a big left-hander, and but one run has been scored off him in the last 23 innings he has pitched against the strongest semi-pro clubs in town. He is highly recommended by Jack Suthoff, Manager Moran will look him over again today, and may decide to give him a trial, saying he is the champion."

Officers of the Fayette County Fish and Game Protective Association are calling attention of Fayette fishermen to the changes in the open season for catching bass which is going into effect for the first time this year. The open season for bass does not start on June 1 but is closed until the 10th.

It is illegal to catch or release in possession, dead or alive, a bass during the closed season.

OVER HALF HUNDRED MAKE 200 SCORE

During the month of May there were more "two hundred" bowlers than ever before in the history of the V. M. C. A. alleys. Fifty-four men and boys qualified for the honor roll by rolling a score of 200 or better.

The highest score for the month was 238, made by F. C. Elliott. The next four bowlers highest were Henry Brownell Jr., 234; H. S. Harper, 232; W. A. Story, 229; Rev. K. B. Alexander, 223.

With the coming of June one alley has been devoted to hot weather games. Croquet Hall and Five Back are becoming popular although there are very few men acquainted with the game.

RECEIVE NO BIDS ON DAYTON AVE.

No bids were received on the Dayton avenue paving contract when the hour for closing to bidders arrived Tuesday noon.

Unsettled shipping conditions and consequent tie-up of materials is believed to be the reason for no bids.

Indications are that the improvement will not be made until next year.

CORN CROP SIGN AGAIN IS HERE

The belief is held by many farmers that an abundance of bloom on the locust trees is a sure sign of a big corn crop, and at the present time the locust trees are covered with blossoms, indicating that if there is anything in the old belief that the outlook for a corn crop this year is a head of prospects of the past two years.

farmers' institutes are held, for which the state provides a nominal sum. It is expected that these will increase, since the number of applications for state-aid institutes has always exceeded the number it has been possible to grant.

Extension schools in agriculture and home economics, which have been conducted for several years by specialists of the College of Agriculture, will be largely discontinued.
